Kenſington, July 19.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Pool, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Steward, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Grand Jury, and Burgeſſes of the Town and Borough of Pool in the County of Mountgomery, at a General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid Borough, on the 19th Day of June, 1713.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Joy and Satisfaction we Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and truly Loyal Subjects, humbly beg leave to Congratulate the Concluſion of a Happy, Glorious and Honourable Peace; built upon ſuch a Foundation (as by the Bleſſing of GOD) may prove a firm and laſting Tranquility to us and our Poſterity.

Madam, the many Difficulties and ſecret Machinations Your Majeſty and Your wiſe and unparallel'd Miniſtry met with in the Progreſs of it, has ſerved only to render Your Attainment more Glorious Your Majeſty's Princely Care of Your Subjects future Happineſs, very eminently alſo appears by Your tender Concern and Regard for the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

Victories and Triumphs (aided by the providential Hand of the Almighty) lowdly ſpeak Your Power and Praiſe: And Peace, the moſt deſirable Bleſſing, attended with ſome Abatement of the heavy Burden of Taxes, Your Subjects Eaſe and Satisfaction; neither hath Your Majeſty's pious Endeavours terminated there, but extended yet further, to the Welfare of Foreign Nations, by the Enlargement and Securing of the Proteſtant Intereſt abroad. All which moſt noble and glorious Acts, have erected laſting Monuments in the Hearts of all good Men amongſt us; and late Poſterity will ever Celebrate Your Name, till time will be no more.

The following Addreſs from the County of Glouceſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Berkely, Eſq; One of the Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Bathurſt.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, at the Quarter Seſſions holden for the County of Glouceſter.

PERMIT us, Madam, in the humbleſt manner, to Congratulate Your Majeſty on the happy End, You have been pleaſed to put to the unpreſidented Attempts of all thoſe, who have endeavoured to obſtruct Your Peace; which You by Your great Wiſdom, and the indefatigable Induſtry of Your Miniſters, have at laſt accompliſh'd, to the univerſal Happineſs of this part of the World, by a Peace moſt Glorious and Advantageous both for the Honour and Benefit of this Your Kingdom.

Your Majeſty hath not only a tender regard of us, but alſo our Poſterity, by ſecuring a Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, wherein Your Princely Care and Affection to Your People is no leſs conſpicuous.

As for our ſelves, be pleaſed to give us leave (with moſt humble and unfeigned Sincerity) to aſſure Your Majeſty, that no Suggeſtion of Intereſt, nor the Clamour of Popery (the now popular Cant of Faction) ſhall ever make us diſloyal to Your Majeſty, or break through the Rules of Religion, as by Law Eſtabliſhed, or the Good of our Country.

May Your Majeſty long enjoy the Bleſſings of this Your moſt glorious Peace, and may all Your Subjects, under a grateful Senſe of Your extenſive Goodneſs, promote Your Majeſty's Eaſe, by which their own is ſecur'd. This is the hearty Prayer of all us, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Bedford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Pynſent Chernock, Bart. and John Harvey, Eſq; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Bruce.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, the Grand Jury, and other the Freeholders of the County of Bedford, met at their General Quarter Seſſions of the ſaid County.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit us, with Hearts truly grateful, to felicitate Your Majeſty upon Your having overcome the Difficulties which did obſtruct a general Peace; an Atchievement that muſt render Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, in Treaty, as conſpicuous as the Power of Your Arms has been in Action.

Your Majeſty has improved the glorious Bleſſing You have provided for Your People, by Your moſt gracious manner of Communicating it to Your Parliament: And it is with the greateſt Satisfaction, we have obſerv'd that Parliament ſo eminent in their returns of Duty and Gratitude to Your Majeſty. We beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that in the enſuing Elections, we ſhall endeavour to return ſuch Members as ſhall Rival them in their Loyalty and Zeal for Your Majeſty, and cheerfully concur in ratifying ſuch well-digeſted Schemes of Commerce as have render'd Your Majeſty's Endeavours for the Proſperity of Your People moſt effectual.

We gratefully acknowledge Your Majeſty's generous Care for our future Happineſs, in ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover. May that be reſerved to our Poſterity, while under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign (which may GOD long continue over us) we do our beſt to Cultivate the Arts of Peace, and bleſs the Hand that gave it.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.
